

WRITING CAMP

GRADES ONE TO FOUR

Who?

Wendy Boynton, B.Ed.,
Educational Consultant, I.D.E.A.S.

What?

A weekly group session for developing writing skills (grades one to four). Each session will be two hours and students will research a topic of their choice (reading and note taking using graphic organizers), then producing a written project to share the gathered information. Each child will work at their own level in active and free flowing sessions, driven by their own interests and needs. Mini lessons will be used to teach skills within the sessions but most of the time will involve active participation in the pursuit of "passion projects".

When?

Days and times to be determined as most convenient for those participating within the weeks of July 11, 18,25, August 2 and 8

Where? Suite 405, Willow Park Centre,
10325 Bonaventure Drive S.E.

Cost?

$90.00 per session

Choose at least three sessions for your child to complete a project.
